Health orders and regulations

Recently, one of our Alberta franchisees had a health authority inspector come through and assess the safety of their store in respect to Covid 19. The inspector provided written sign off that the store's additional safety procedures were meeting the various local regulations in place and could continue to stay open.

We suggest you take these minimum precautions as listed in the guidance from the BC health authority below

Each province or even individual cities, may have their own unique regulations on suggested enhanced safety protocols and procedures that they require of their retail businesses. Please ensure you meet the expectations of local and provincial governments where your store is located.

Here is a great resource if you want more information on the effectiveness of some of the cleaning products you may be using around your store as part of your heightened safety procedures.
